THE UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA

Creating exceptional experiences for a lifetime.

In January of 1785 — two years after the Revolutionary War — the Georgia legislature adopted the charter that created the University of Georgia. In founding the nation's first state university, the legislature also gave birth to the American system of public higher education. Over the past 220 years, Georgia and its university have grown together as partners in a burgeoning prosperity that has made the University a fast-track contender for educational pre-eminence. With more than 33,400 students, a work force of more than 9,000 and an annual budget of over $1.4 billion, the University of Georgia is Georgia's largest, oldest and most comprehensive educational institution. Widely recognized for excellence in instruction, research and public service, the University has moved into the ranks of America's foremost public universities.

According to the Radio Television Digital News Association, Grady College of Journalism and Mass Communication was named the third-best journalism schools in the nation.

10

Kiplinger Magazine ranks UGA 10th in its 2015 list of 100 best values in public colleges and universities.

15

According to the Open Doors list, Georgia ranked fifteenth in the nation in the number of American students studying abroad.

20

UGA is ranked 20th among the nation's top public universities in America in U.S. News & World Report's Best Colleges 2015 edition.

21

U.S. News & World Report ranks the Terry College of Business No. 21 for best undergraduate business school.

22

UGA's College of Education tied for No. 22 U.S. News & World Report's 2014 Best Online Programs rankings for its master's degree programs.

MEDIA POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Gameday Media Services

The sports communications office provides notes, statistics and media guides prior to home matches. These are also available online. Results and box scores will be distributed following each home match.

Match Coverage

While we do not credential for home matches, please contact Whitney Tarpay in the sports communications office if you plan to cover a home match. She can be reached by phone at 706-542-7965 or email via wtarpay@sports.uga.edu.

Interviews

Georgia coaches and student-athletes are available for interviews by request following each home match. Midweek and non-gameday interviews are arranged by request and occur following practice. Please submit requests 24 hours in advance. Phone interviews can also be arranged. Please contact Whitney Tarpay in the sports communications office.

GTV

GTV is your source for news and information on the Georgia Bulldogs. Highlights for each home match are also available through GTV.

www.georgiadogs.com

Georgia's official athletics website is www.georgiadogs.com. The site serves as the front door to the Bulldog experience. The website also serves as a link between the Georgia Athletic Association, members of the media and the Bulldog Nation.

In addition to game recaps and features, www.georgiadogs.com is also the source for up-to-date stats, notes, rosters, player and coach bios, and historical data.

Fans are encouraged to check www.georgiadogs.com often as it is updated regularly to make sure that fans don't miss a minute of the action.

Southeastern Conference Media Information

SEC statistics, schedules and other information is available on the conference's official website www.SECsports.com.

Directions to the Ramsey Student Center

From Atlanta: Take I-85 North to Highway 316 (signs to Athens). Continue on 316 approximately 40 miles. Turn right onto the Athens Bypass (Loop 10) southbound. Take the College Station Road exit and turn left. At the second light, turn right onto River Road and the Ramsey Student Center and East Campus Parking Deck will be on the left.

Mission Statement

The SEC's mission statement reflects the priorities of the league. "The purpose of the Southeastern Conference is to assist its member institutions in the maintenance of programs of intercollegiate athletics which are compatible with the highest standards of education and competitive sports."

The Standard of Excellence

The Southeastern Conference, with its storied 82-year history of athletic achievements and academic excellence, has built perhaps the greatest tradition of intercollegiate competition of any league in the country since its inception in 1933.

The 2014-15 academic year was another season to remember for the SEC as conference teams captured six national titles and five national runner-up finishes. The SEC has won consecutive national championships in equestrian, men's golf, gymnastics and softball.

- Since 2000, the SEC has won 101 team national championships for an average of more than six per year.
- The SEC finished in the top two in 11 of its 21 sponsored sports and in the top five in 20 of the 21 sports.
- 12 SEC teams participated in football postseason bowls with Alabama participating in the inaugural College Football Playoff.
- Five men's basketball teams and seven women's basketball teams were invited to the NCAA Tournament.
- Seven SEC teams advanced to postseason play in baseball with Arkansas, Florida, LSU and Vanderbilt advancing to the College World Series.
- 178 SEC teams advanced to NCAA postseason competition.
- 53 SEC student-athletes garnered individual national championships.
- 543 individuals were awarded with First-Team All-America Honors.
- More than 3,300 student-athletes earned recognition on the SEC Academic Honor Roll.
- All 14 SEC schools placed in the top 66 of the NACDA Director's Cup rankings and half the league finished in the Top 25. Florida led the league with a fourth-place finish. Georgia placed 14th while LSU was 15th; Arkansas finished 16th, Texas A&M 17th, Kentucky 22nd and Alabama 25th.

Jere W. Morehead
University President

Jere W. Morehead became the University of Georgia's 22nd president on July 1, 2013, having previously served as UGA's senior vice president for academic affairs and provost since 2010.

President Morehead's career covers a wide range of faculty and administrative roles. Prior to 2010, he served UGA in several key administrative assignments, including vice president for instruction, vice provost for academic affairs, associate provost and director of the Honors Program, and acting executive director of legal affairs. From 2003 to 2010, he served as the University's Faculty Athletics Representative.

As UGA President, he also serves as chair of the Georgia Athletic Association Board of Directors, chair of the UGA Research Foundation, a UGA Foundation trustee and a UGA Real Estate Foundation trustee. He has been appointed to a one-year term on the Committee of Research Intensive Public Universities by the Association of Public and Land-grant Universities, and is included in Georgia Trend's 2014 Most Influential list.

President Morehead is the Meigs Professor of Legal Studies in the Terry College of Business, where he has held a faculty appointment since 1986. He is a co-author of several books and book chapters, including The Legal and Regulatory Environment of Business, and he has published scholarly articles on legal topics ranging from export controls to jury selection. He has served as editor-in-chief of the American Business Law Journal and previously held several other editorial board positions with the ABLJ.

He directed the UGA Law School's Advocacy Program from 1986 to 1995 at a time when the moot court teams he coached won international, national, regional and state championships. In 1995, he served as a visiting professor of business law at the University of Michigan.

President Morehead has received several University-wide teaching awards, including the Josiah Meigs Award — UGA's highest honor for teaching excellence — the Richard B. Russell Award for Excellence in Undergraduate Teaching, the Teacher of the Year Award in the Terry College of Business, and the Lothar Tresp Outstanding Honors Professor Award.

Morehead is a native of Lakeland, Fla. He moved with his family to Atlanta as a teenager, and enrolled at Georgia State University after graduating from high school at the age of 16. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in 1977. He entered the University of Georgia School of Law in 1977, where he graduated with a juris doctor degree at the age of 23 in 1980. After graduation, he served as an assistant United States attorney with the Department of Justice from 1980 to 1986. He is the first alumnus of UGA to be named president since Dr. Fred Davison in 1967.

Greg McGarity
J. Reid Parker Director Of Athletics

Athens native and University of Georgia graduate Greg McGarity was named Director of Athletics at UGA on August 13, 2010, after serving 18 years in the athletic department at the University of Florida.

Since that time, McGarity has injected a program of imagination and innovation into the Georgia Athletic Association with emphasis on exploring new ideas and initiatives designed to move the organization forward in all areas of competition, academics, and service.

Among the many initiatives are implementation of a nutrition program for all sports, greater emphasis on customer service as well as community service, scoreboard upgrades enhancing the in-game experience for guests and patrons in all sports, and development of leadership programs fostering staff development. In addition, he has encouraged the experimentation of new ideas such as moving volleyball competition to Stegeman Coliseum and helping bring a sold-out concert (Jason Aldean, 65,000) to Sanford Stadium for the first time in stadium history. He was also instrumental in development and implementation along with Nike of a new brand identity program which brings consistency in use of colors, logos, lettering and numerals to Georgia sports teams.

McGarity oversees a 21-sport athletics program supported by a budget of $99 million. Since becoming Director of Athletics, Georgia teams have won national championships in women's swimming and diving (2013 and '14) and equestrian (2014) and SEC championships in men's tennis (2011, '13, '14, and '15), men's tennis SEC Tournament (2012 and '13), women's tennis (2013), women's tennis SEC Tournament ('14), women's swimming and diving (2011, '12, '13, '14, and '15), equestrian (2015), and two SEC eastern division titles in football (2011 and 2012). During that time 18 different Georgia teams have been ranked in the nation's top 20 and 10 in the top ten. Georgia's standing in the Learfield Director's Cup, which annually measures athletic teams success in NCAA championships, has improved from 20th in 2011 to 10th in 2013 and is consistently in the top 20.

McGarity has also been a standard bearer for academic achievement. Since his arrival, Georgia student-athletes have been the recipients of eight NCAA Post Graduate Scholarships, 21 CoSIDA Academic All-American awards, three NCAA Top Ten honors, three SEC Boyd McWhorter SEC Scholar-Athletes of the Year, and two SEC Brad Davis Awards.

In addition, he has been at the forefront of facility expansion and renovation. Recently completed are a $12 million Foley Field (baseball) facility renovation, and new scoreboards/video boards at baseball, softball, and soccer. New sound systems in Stegeman Coliseum and Sanford Stadium have also been installed to improve the fan experience, as well as improvements in rest rooms and concessions stands. In addition, a new Indoor Athletic Facility is scheduled to be constructed adjacent to the Butts-Mehre Building, which will provide a facility for all sports to utilize.

McGarity was appointed as the athletic director's representative to the SEC Executive Committee in 2013. He was named recipient of the 2013 Tom Osborne Award presented by the Collegiate and Professional Sports Dietitians Association (CPSDA) for special achievement and contributions to advanced-practice sports nutrition. A 1976 graduate of UGA's Grady College of Journalism and Mass Communication, McGarity is a 2012 inductee into the Grady Fellowship, a recognition program to honor those whose influence, achievements and service to the media professions have enhanced the reputation of the Grady College.

He served on the NCAA Division I Football Issues Committee from 2012-14. McGarity is also currently serving on the NCAA National Letter of Intent Football Recruiting Group, SEC Fan Experience Working Group, and the U.S. Tennis Association Athletic Director's Advisory Group.

At UF, he served as Executive Associate Athletic Director after serving as both an associate and senior associate athletic director during his tenure. His duties at Florida included assisting the athletic director in daily operations of the department, assisting in preparation and approval of the annual budget and extensive involvement in long-term planning, contracts, competition scheduling and employment searches, among other areas. McGarity was involved in the planning and supervision of several construction projects, including the expansion of Ben Hill Griffin Stadium and the William Heavener Football Complex.

McGarity was a letterman on the 1973 Bulldog tennis team and following graduation began his professional career at UGA. After serving as a student assistant from 1973-77, he held positions as assistant sports information director and head women's tennis coach (1977-81), administrative assistant (1982-88), and assistant athletic director for facilities and event management (1988-92).

McGarity is married to the former Sheryl Holland, who graduated from UGA in 1976 with a Bachelor of Science degree in education. They have one son, Alex, a graduate of the University of Florida and the University of Georgia.

2015 Season Outlook

The 2015 Georgia Volleyball Team is G Proud

With head coach Lizzy Stemke entering her fifth season at the helm of the Georgia volleyball team, the Bulldogs have their sights on reaching the NCAA Tournament for the second time in three years. Returning to this year's squad are nine players as well as seven newcomers.

"In 2015 we are 'G Proud,'" Stemke said. "The returners have come up with this saying for 2015 and in this very simple phrase, the group is committed to giving 100 percent effort and pride in each and every moment and task of their experience this season. We will be completely process driven this year, and our focus is cohesion and improvement. We are embracing seven new faces this year and with this youth will come great energy. I love the positivity of our group."

Georgia will turn to Jasmine Eatmon and Desiree McCray as its leaders defensively. The duo returns after helping the Bulldogs lead the Southeastern Conference in total blocks (285) and in blocks per set (2.39). Joining the pair are Majesti Bass and Anna Kate Karstens. Georgia will also have veterans on the back row, as Elle McCord and Cassidy Anderson return for their junior and sophomore seasons, respectively. Sydney Gilliam and Bre Laney will also look to establish depth in the back court for the Bulldogs this season.

"In our returning crew, we have great experience out of the middle hitter position," continued Stemke. "Both Des (McCray) and Jas (Eatmon) will be integral in our defensive organization at the net. Amanda Dachs and Megan Spencer are our returning pin hitters, but it is their maturity in this last year that will provide great leadership to the court. We have great ball control returning and with a few spots to fill, there will be opportunity for some great competition in our gym."

On the offensive side of the net, Georgia will continue to look to Dachs and Spencer, who combined for 400 kills last season. Also in Georgia's arsenal are sophomores Devan Porter and Maddie Lobenstein, who look to get into the mix offensively. The Bulldogs welcome freshmen Caroline Ostman and Courtney Vogler, giving Georgia several options offensively. Sophomore setter Kendall Kazor, who split time at the position last season, will assist the hitters. Sarah Lagler-Clark will also look to see some action on the court this season.

Along with the returners, Georgia will welcome seven newcomers to the roster, each of whom has the ability to have an immediate impact on the roster. The freshman class consists of a setter, two outside hitters, two defensive specialists and two middle blockers.

"We have seven new freshmen which is almost half of our roster," Stemke said. "Our veterans have done an unbelievable job preparing the freshmen for their transition to Georgia, and we are excited to get them incorporated into our gym quickly. There will be a lot of athleticism wearing the Georgia G in 2015, and we are ready to get to work with this 2015 team."

The Bulldogs face a challenging slate this year. The schedule includes two home tournaments, 16 home matches and 18 SEC matches. Georgia's 12-game non-conference slate includes matches against Syracuse, Wisconsin, Georgetown, Wake Forest and VCU. Georgia will also host the Georgia Challenge, a travelling tournament that features competition among schools in Georgia. This year, Georgia Southern, Mercer and Georgia Tech will take part in the tournament at the Ramsey Center.

"We will be hosting back-to-back tournaments to kick off the preseason in weekends one and two," Stemke said. "In addition to our home tournaments, our great preseason lineup continues with two very competitive travel tournaments. We will travel to Madison, Wis., for our third weekend and then head over to Wake Forest to conclude our preseason in our fourth weekend"

Georgia will also have 18 SEC contests, including home matches against Tennessee, LSU, South Carolina, Missouri, Ole Miss, Florida, Kentucky, Alabama and Mississippi State.

"Our SEC schedule will prove to be exciting," added Stemke. "Once again, we will play an 18-match SEC schedule and, as we say every year, the competition continues to heat up year in and year out in conference play. Our squad looks to take each and every match one game at a time, and we are excited for the challenge and the journey."

The Bulldogs will be in televised matches six times this season. Georgia's televised matches will come against South Carolina, Auburn, Alabama, Ole Miss, Kentucky and Mississippi State.

Lizzy Stemke

Head Coach • Fifth Season • Record: 61-62
Wisconsin, '04

Lizzy Stemke was named head coach of the University of Georgia women's volleyball program on Dec. 22, 2010. Stemke, the sixth head coach at Georgia since the program's inception in 1978, comes to Athens having spent four seasons as an assistant coach at the University of Nebraska.

In 2014, Stemke's fourth season at Georgia, the Bulldogs finished with a 14-17 record that included a 5-13 mark in SEC play. Highlighting the season was Desiree McCray earning SEC Defensive Player of the Week honors, the first win over in-state rival Georgia Tech since 2005, a 1,000 kill performer and a season sweep of Missouri.

Stemke's third season in Athens was a historic one, as the program reached the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2004. She guided the team to a 22-10 record, its best record since 1994, and posted a 3-2 win over then-No. 15 Kentucky, Georgia's first win over a ranked team in the Stemke era. The Bulldogs finished fourth in the SEC with an 11-9 record. Under her leadership, Brittany Northcutt was named to the All-SEC team while Lauren Teknipp was named to the CoSIDA Academic All-Region team.

Stemke led the Bulldogs to an overall record of 14-16 in her second season with the Bulldogs. The record included eight wins over SEC opponents. She also coached Jasmine Eatmon to the SEC All-Freshman team and two SEC Freshman of the Week honors. Stemke also led the Bulldogs to a season-sweep of Alabama and Mississippi State and wins over LSU and Missouri. The win at LSU was the first win in Baton Rouge for a Bulldog team since 2001. The team also took perennial league powers Tennessee and Kentucky to five sets.

In her first season at the helm of the Bulldogs in 2011, Georgia went 11-19 overall, including a 7-13 record in SEC play, finishing tied sixth in the league.

A former All-American and U.S. National Team member, Stemke helped guide the Huskers to a 116-15 record and four NCAA Volleyball Championship appearances during her time with the program. In Big 12 play from 2007-10, the Huskers went 72-8 with three Big 12 titles.

Stemke's roles at Nebraska included serving as the co-recruiting coordinator, offensive coordinator, setter training, video coordinator, academic and community involvement liaison, and assisting with summer camps and coaching clinics. She played a major role in the recruitment of a pair of top-10 recruiting classes, including the 2009 class that was ranked second nationally by PrepVolleyball.com. Her contributions to NU's success were noticed, as she was named one of the country's top-10 assistant coaches by Volleyball Magazine in February of 2010.

Stemke coached two All-American setters at Nebraska in Sydney Anderson and Rachel Holloway. In 2009, Anderson became a two-time All-American, averaging 11.53 assists per set to help Nebraska to a sixth consecutive NCAA Regional Final. In 2008, Anderson earned Second-Team AVCA All-America honors, ranking eighth nationally in assists at 11.60 per set, as the Huskers replaced four All-Americans from the previous season. In Stemke's first year at NU, the Huskers finished in the top three nationally in assists per set (16.42) and hitting percentage (.327) while Holloway finished her college career ranking ninth nationally with 13.58 assists per set.

Prior to Nebraska, Stemke was an assistant coach at the University of North Carolina from 2005-06. At UNC, Stemke served as setters' coach, handled opponent scouting and video exchange, recruiting, team travel and community outreach. In 2005, the Tar Heels won the Atlantic Coast Conference title and advanced to the NCAA Tournament.

Stemke also has additional experience coaching both at the collegiate and club levels. Since 2007, she has worked with setting and defensive clinics at the Nebraska Volleyball Academy while also assisting with numerous tryouts and summer camps with USA High Performance. Stemke spent the 2003 season as a volunteer assistant at the University of Central Florida, and the Knights won the Atlantic Sun Conference championship and reached the round of 32 in the NCAA Tournament for the second time in school history before finishing with a 23-7 record.

During her time in Florida, Stemke also co-founded the Team Orlando Volleyball Club and acted as its head recruiter and setter and defense clinic coordinator. She has also spent time working with the Triangle Setting Academy, the Wisconsin Power Volleyball Club, the All-American Volleyball Camps and Next Level Volleyball Camp.

Playing Experience:

Stemke enjoyed a distinguished career at the University of Wisconsin from 1998 to 2001. A three-year starter for the Badgers and team captain from 2000-01, she helped Wisconsin to a 112-23 record, a pair of Big Ten titles and an NCAA runner-up finish in 2000. One of only three two-time AVCA All-Americans in Wisconsin history, she ranked fourth nationally in assists as a senior in 2001 with 13.72 per game when she was named Big Ten Player of the Year. She was recruited to Wisconsin by current Nebraska head coach John Cook, whose last year as Badgers' head coach was 1998.

Following her collegiate career, Stemke spent two years with the U.S. National Team. In 2002, she was a member of the silver medal-winning team at the World Championships. She also helped the U.S. team win a bronze medal at the 2003 Pan American Games. After her time with the national team, Stemke spent two seasons playing professionally. In 2003, she was named the Most Valuable Player of the Puerto Rican League. She then spent one season playing in the Pro A League in France.

Stemke earned her Bachelor of Arts in Communications degree from the University of Wisconsin in 2004.

Family:

The former Lizzy Fitzgerald, she is married to Kevin Stemke and the couple are the parents to two children, Kerrigan Jane and Edmond Gustav. Kevin played collegiate football at the University of Wisconsin from 1997-2000 and was named the inaugural winner of the Ray Guy Award in 2000 as the nation's top punter. He went on to play professionally from 2001-04 with five organizations, most notably the Oakland Raiders in 2002 and the St. Louis Rams in 2004.

Stemke comes from a family heavily involved in college athletics. Her father, Billy Fitzgerald, played baseball and basketball at Tulane from 1967-69 and is in the school's athletic hall of fame. Her older brother, Edmond, played basketball at Ole Miss from 1992-94, while her older sister, Meg, played volleyball at Florida from 1992-95 and was the head volleyball coach at Central Florida until 2007. Her youngest brother, Robert, played baseball at the University of Tennessee from 2002-05.

He was promoted to associate head coach in January of 2014 after spending three seasons as an assistant coach of the Georgia volleyball team. His primary responsibilities with the Bulldogs include serving as recruiting coordinator, coordination of blocking and defense, and opponent scouting.

Since his arrival, Georgia has seen its blocking totals increase each year. The Bulldog defensive front has seen the total number of blocks increase from 245.5 in his first year to 285 this past season. Georgia finished the regular season ranked first in total blocks (285) and in blocks per set (2.39). Desiree McCray ranked third in blocks per set in the SEC and was named the SEC Defensive Player of the Week for the first time in her career.

With the help of Lauer's guidance, the Georgia volleyball program has taken great strides, making its first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2004 in 2013. That year, Georgia also put together its first 20-win season since 2002 and recorded the most wins in a season since 1994.

Prior to coming to Georgia, Lauer spent the three previous seasons as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of Alabama where he helped the Crimson Tide land its first top-30 recruiting class and a trio of high school All-Americans in 2010.

Prior to his stint in Tuscaloosa, Lauer spent four years as the head coach at the University of Missouri - St. Louis where he took his team from the bottom of the conference to a top-five standing. The Tritons put together their first 10-plus conference match winning season in Lauer's final year after managing just four Great Lakes Valley Conference wins when he began in 2004.

Throughout his tenure at Missouri - St. Louis, Lauer's squads collected numerous team and individual accolades, including the American Volleyball Coaches Association Academic Award, the Great Lakes Valley Conference Sportsmanship Award, one ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District Third Team honoree, and several all-conference and academic all-conference selections.

Lauer's coaching career got started at the club level where he spent eight years with the St. Louis CYC Volleyball Club. He had three top-five national finishes in the open division at the United States Junior Olympic Volleyball National Tournament and two additional top 20 finishes. More than 20 of Lauer's club team players were recruited and played at the NCAA Division I level.

An original native of York, Pa., Lauer is a 1999 graduate of Washington University - St. Louis where he earned a bachelor's degree in chemistry with a minor in religious studies. He is married to the former Debra Reckase. They have two children, Eli and Jonah.

Colleen Bayer

Assistant Coach • Fourth Season
Wisconsin, '01

Colleen Bayer is in her fourth season as an assistant coach for the University of Georgia. Bayer's on-court training responsibilities include the training of Georgia's pin hitters and passers while assisting in the coordination of the offense.

Off the court, Bayer is the liaison to academics, strength and conditioning, and nutrition. Since taking over the academic oversight, the Bulldogs have had 20 players named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll. In 2014, Georgia posted a 3.22 team GPA, which was the fifth highest among all women's teams at Georgia.

She also serves as the director of camps, community outreach and alumni relations, and helps freshmen make the transition to college.

Prior to her time at Georgia, Bayer spent seven seasons as the assistant coach at Wisconsin. While there, she assisted with recruiting efforts, academics, alumni relations, camps and team development.

Bayer was a four-year letterwinner at Wisconsin from 1995-98. She played her first two seasons as a defensive specialist and back-up setter. Bayer took over the starting setter job as a junior and senior, earning All-Big Ten honors in 1997 and 1998. She was also a two-time AVCA All-District 2 selection and was named to the 1997 and 1998 NCAA Regional All-Tournament teams, leading the Badgers to top-eight finishes. Bayer was the Badgers' team captain in 1998 and also earned two Academic All-Big Ten honors. With Bayer setting, Wisconsin won the 1997 Big Ten Championship and finished second in 1998.

Following her collegiate career, Bayer played with the United States Professional Volleyball league. She was a member of the USPV Dream Team in 1999-2000. Bayer played professionally with USC-Muenster in Muenster, Germany, in 2000 before returning to play one year with the Minnesota Chill of the USPV. She served as the captain of the Chill, which won the 2002 USPV league title.

Bayer served as an assistant coach with the Milwaukee Sting Volleyball Club in 1996 and with the Wisconsin Select Volleyball Club in 1997. In 2000, Bayer worked as an assistant coach with the 16-1 team of the Sports Performance Volleyball Club. Her team finished ninth in the country and won the AAU National Championship.

Bayer was the head freshman coach and varsity assistant coach at St. Charles (Ill.) East High School in 2001, aiding the varsity squad to the Illinois state championship. Since 2002, she worked at the Great Lakes Center in Aurora, Ill., as a sales assistant and office manager. A native of Pewaukee, Wis., and a graduate of Catholic Memorial High School in Waukesha, Wis., Bayer graduated from Wisconsin in 2001 with a bachelor's degree in human development and family studies. She and her husband, Dave, are the parents of three children: Max, Ben and Samantha.

Brian

Muesenfechter

Volunteer Assistant Coach • Second Season
Lewis, '11

Brian Muesenfechter is in his second season as the volunteer assistant coach for the Bulldogs. Muesenfechter comes to Georgia having served as the graduate assistant coach for the men's volleyball team at Missouri Baptist University since 2011.

As a graduate assistant at Missouri Baptist, Muesenfechter's responsibilities included planning practice, developing scouting reports, recruiting and budgeting for team travel. During his time there, he helped lead the team to a 17-win season and No. 3 national ranking in 2012 after winning just eight matches in 2011. In 2013 MBU finished with an 18-8 record before reaching 20 wins in 2014. Muesenfechter also coached two players to NAIA All-America status. Additionally, he coordinated men's and women's summer camps for Missouri Baptist.

Since 2012, Muesenfechter has coached volleyball at Christian Brothers College High School in St. Louis, Missouri. As the assistant coach for the varsity team, he helped lead the team to a runner-up finish at the Missouri State Volleyball Championship in 2013. He also helped two players earn All-Metro honors in 2013.

As a club coach for High Performance St. Louis Volleyball Club since 2007, Muesenfechter helped the 18 Gold Team to qualify for Junior Nationals. From 2012-13, he served as the head coach for the 18U Navy Team, where he coached five players who are now playing collegiately.

Muesenfechter played collegiately for Lewis University from 2008-11. A four-year starter for Lewis, Muesenfechter served as the captain in 2011 before being voted the Most Valuable Player by his teammates. He was named the Defensive Player of the Week in 2011. As a player, he helped Lewis to a top-15 ranking in each of his four years and three 20 or more win seasons.

In 2008, Muesenfechter played for the United States Junior National Team, which placed third at the North, Central America and Caribbean Volleyball Confederation qualifier in El Salvador.

Prior to his collegiate playing experience, Muesenfechter played for the High Performance St. Louis Volleyball Club from 2003-2007. His time with High Performance culminated with a National Championship in 2007. While playing for High Performance, he was named an All-American and was a Fab 50 Selection in 2007.

Muesenfechter graduated with a bachelor's degree in Business Administration from Lewis in 2011 before earning his M.B.A. from Missouri Baptist in 2014.

2014 Season Recap

The Georgia volleyball team finished its 2014 campaign with a 14-17 record that included a 5-13 mark in Southeastern Conference matches.

Highlighting the season was a pair of tournament titles, defeating Georgia Tech for the first time since 2005, a season sweep of Missouri that included the first-ever win in Columbia, Mo., Desiree McCray earning SEC Defensive Player of the Week honors for the first time in her career, Tirah Le'au becoming a 1,000 kill performer and Gaby Smiley earning a spot on the SEC Volleyball Community Service Team for the second-straight year.

The Bulldogs set several match records in 2014 as well. The Bulldogs posted 20 blocks against Southern Miss, marking the first time since 2002 that a Georgia team recorded 20 blocks in the match and the first time in program history that the Bulldogs had 20 blocks in a four set match. The Bulldogs posted a .512 hitting percentage against Alabama A&M, which was the highest single-game hitting percentage since 2005.

In addition to the team records, Jasmine Eatmon had one of the best individual season performances in recent memory, making her mark both offensively and defensively. The junior became a force at the net, hitting over .300 in 19 matches and over .400 in 14 matches this season. Her .818 hitting efficiency on 11 attempts against Tennessee tied the Georgia all-time record for hitting percentage in a match. Eatmon ranked in the top-five among SEC players in hitting percentage, notching a .396 on the year and .403 in SEC play. Defensively, Eatmon finished second on the team in blocks with 97, averaging 0.88 blocks per set. Fifty of those blocks came in SEC play.

The Bulldogs started their season by winning eight of their first 12 matches. On the way, Georgia took home two preseason tournament titles. The first tournament trophy came at the Bulldog Invitational when they picked up three wins over Chattanooga, Belmont and the College of Charleston. Georgia then took home the Georgia Tech Invitational title. Among the wins that helped the Bulldogs take home the championship was a 3-1 win over Georgia Tech, the first win over the in-state rival since 2005.

Georgia got its first SEC with a win over Missouri, taking a 3-1 win over the Tigers in Athens.

The Bulldogs brought home two more SEC wins when they earned the season sweep of Missouri with a 3-2 win in Columbia. It was the first win for Georgia in Missouri. Georgia followed the win over Missouri with a 3-2 win over Auburn in a rematch of an earlier game.

Tirah Le'au became the 17th player in Georgia history, and the second one in as many seasons, to reach 1,000 career kills in Georgia's 3-1 win over Mississippi State in the final regular-season SEC weekend.

Georgia concluded its 2014 campaign with a 3-2 win over Kennesaw State on senior night. Prior to the match, the Bulldogs honored Le'au, Lauren Teknipp, Kaylee Kehoe and Smiley. The foursome combined for over 50 wins, over 1,900 kills, over 1,800 digs and over 150 aces.
